

City of Redmond Planning Commission

July 11, 2007 Meeting Summary

Planning Commissioners in Attendance:

Sue Petitpas, Tom Hinman, Korby Parnell, Suzanne Querry, Martin Snodgrass

Staff in Attendance:

Terry Marpert, Lori Peckol and Jayme Jonas, Redmond Planning Department
Joel Pfundt, Redmond Public Works

Business Conducted:

Commission Chair Petitpas called the meeting to order at 7:04 p.m.

The Commission approved the agenda.

Under Items from the Audience, Coby Holley, PS Business Parks, spoke to the Planning Commission about his request to expand allowed land uses in Overlake, and made reference to the letter that he sent to the Commissioners.

Chair Petitpas opened the study session on the Overlake Neighborhood Plan and Group Health Cooperative's proposed amendments to the Redmond Community Development Guide. Commissioner Hinman led the discussion on the identified issues raised previously, and contained in the packet prepared by staff. The Commissioners reviewed their issues table, including permitted uses in the Overlake Village area.

Lori Peckol and Jayme Jonas made a PowerPoint presentation on the various planning issues under discussion for Overlake. Joel Pfundt presented information on transportation issues, including proposed transportation projects and street cross-sections, and responded to questions.

Jayme Jonas reported on the Overlake residential area open house, and the Puget Sound Regional Council's Growth Management Policy Board review of the regional growth center designation for Overlake.

Staff determined that there will be at least four Planning Commissioners at the next meeting on July 25, 2007.

The Commission voted to extend the meeting past 10:00 p.m.

Chair Petitpas adjourned the meeting at 10:03 p.m.
